1 // Denver, CO With nearly 3,500 square miles of wilderness atop a volcanic hot spot, Yellowstone National Park spreads into three states and features dramatic canyons, alpine rivers, lush forests, hot springs and gushing geysers including its most famous, Old Faithful. It is also home to hundreds of animal species including bears, wolves, bison, elk and antelope. We begin our unforgettable journey west today.

2 // Meeker, CO Cross the Continental Divide aboard Amtrak's Superliner train traveling from Denver to Glenwood Springs. Tunnels, peaks, and small mountain towns round out the trip for an amazing leg of our journey. Enjoy dinner this evening.

3 // Jackson Hole, WY Start out today with a visit to a true western heritage venue. View one of the largest cowboy gun, leather and spur collections ever on public display at the Museum of Northwest Colorado. Relax as we continue our stunning journey through the breathtaking panoramas on our way to unforgettable Jackson Hole. Settle in for a two night stay in the historic town and visit "Town Square", best known for its elk-antler arches at each corner of the park. Get some rest tonight, because the rich natural beauty we'll experience tomorrow will never be forgotten.

4 // Jackson Hole, WY Take on the vast winter wonderland of Yellowstone and Grand Teton National Park. The Old Faithful Snowcoach Tour will make several stops along the way viewing the beautiful landscape, scenery, as well as help you learn and experience first-hand the history and geological features of the Park. Keep your eyes peeled for elk, bison, trumpeter swan, bald eagle and coyotes. You'll enjoy lunch during this tour. Then, get ready to gush as you see the steaming spurts of Old Faithful, the star of Yellowstone and the best-known geyser in the world. You can almost set your watch by the eruptions that occur about every 90 minutes—you won't want to miss it.

5 // Rock Springs, WY This morning, take a horse drawn sleigh ride through the Jackson Hole Elk Refuge, home to 10,000 elk in their natural surroundings. Get an up close view of these majestic creatures and listen as your guide narrates the history and habits of the largest land migration of elk in the U.S. Visit the National Museum of Wildlife Art, which overlooks the Elk Refuge and features more than 5,000 fascinating works of art representing wild animals from around the world. Enjoy the beautiful ride this afternoon.

6 // Denver, CO & Limon, CO Relax as you ride through the scenic Rockies to the Mile High City. A stop for lunch is included as our winter wonderland experience draws to a close. Tonight, Wichita passengers will overnight in Denver. Oklahoma City & Tulsa passengers will overnight in Limon.

7 // Home No matter how many places we've traveled, Yellowstone will be a treasured destination.
